

HUNTER MUSKETT

Hunter Muskett is an acoustic/electric harmony band, playing distinctive original songs in a folky, sometimes bluesey, vein. In the early 1970s they played clubs, colleges and festivals at home and abroad and recorded two, now collectable, albums. Since reforming they have produced two new CDs of original material:

That Was Then, This Is Now (2013)

Unafraid and Sober (2017)

“One band that doesn’t have to stand on past glories.” Record Collector Magazine
